Clyde Aspevig (b. 1951)

Sunlight & Winter

Oil on linen mounted on board • 14 x 18 inches • Signed lower left, C. Aspevig

We are delighted to offer you two re-discovered works by noted Montana landscape painter, Clyde Aspevig. The larger piece, Across the Rhine, is a marvelous depiction of the meandering river with the charming, centuries old buildings on the far shore and light raking in from the left. This piece followed a trip to Switzerland for the artist and his wife, Carol. The smaller work, Sunlight and Winter, is an intimate portrayal of the effects of light on a quiet cove hidden within the trees. The snowpack in the foreground and distance adds to a marvelous portrait of Montana's winter season.

Also included is a fabulous find of Billings artist, Hall Diteman. Diteman was an early mentor to Aspevig and the similarities of Clyde's early works is evidence of the association. Hall Diteman has been quietly hidden from the market and an opportunity to consider one of his works is a rare treat. This scene is a striking interpretation of the Tetons in the fall and will shower a room with color.
